

Counselors Creating Connections
2nd Annual CEESA Counselors Retreat
April 3-6, 2014
Sofia, Bulgaria

Following the successful “Counselors Creating Connections” retreat last April in Bucharest, we are pleased to announce this year’s retreat which will take place in Sofia, Bulgaria, hosted by The Anglo-American School of Sofia counselors Laura Giosh-Markov and David Stephenson.

A retreat with a focus on learning through professional conversations

The CEESA Counselor’s Retreat was established to provide a professional development event where professional conversations and interaction are an integral part of the experience. The retreat consists of workshops and discussions led by participants, and subject area discussion groups.

The goals for the conference:

- Bring together counselors to strengthen professional ties along geographic and subject interests
- Create a forum for sharing expertise
- Receive continuing education/professional development credit

Cost: €300 per participant, which includes:

- Hotel room for three nights (and use of hotel gym/spa)
- Conference fees
- Breakfast April 3-6
- Lunches and coffee breaks on conference days
- Opening dinner April 3

Attendee costs are:

- Airfare to Sofia
- Dinner for two nights
- Airport taxi (roughly €7 each way)

Registration & Payment: Registration forms and bank transfer information will be sent to counselors in mid-November, 2013.

Thank you in advance and we look forward to welcoming you to Sofia this spring!

About the venue: The Hotel Crystal Palace is a boutique hotel in a rather lovely part of town known as 'Doctors' Garden', a leafy neighborhood in the center of Sofia. The hotel looks out over the park and is in walking distance to just about everything you may want to see in Sofia.
